This is the last planned tour of the season but that doesn't mean we can't have impromptu tours on any nice day in the fall or winter. Larry Summerfield will be our tour chairman again so if you wish to pick a date for a tour in the new year, call and set the date with Larry. We will try to have the tour dates out in the first few months of the year so you can plan accordingly. Thanks to all the tour hosts from this year and looking forward to the tour season of 2012. Hope to see everyone at Faraudo's this Saturday. . . Ed.

Fall Color Tour

Our tour to the Dilworth vineyards was a relaxing lowland tour and all 18 Model T's made the trip with flying fall colors. Dick Winterhalder and Avery and Jane Chope met us in Geyserville. Dick Dilworth arrived at our meeting spot with 4 dogs in the pickup cab with him. He led us up the beautiful vineyard road to his home where we were met by Jan and together they opened their grounds for us to enjoy. They not only grow grapes but have Belgium Draft horses which is Dick's passion. We were given a tour of barns filled with wonderful

Lambert Bridge Winery

carriages and buckboards of all shapes and sizes. Jan served us tastings of a great homemade Zinfandel before we left. We headed back down the road and enjoyed more fall color all the way out West Dry Creek to Lambert Bridge Winery. Tables were reserved for us to have our picnic lunch and do a little wine tasting. We left for home around 2:30 and again enjoyed beautiful Sonoma County in full fall colors. Thanks to Robin & Larry Summerfield who drove trouble truck and to all our members who attended with their wonderful Model T's. Those attending: Hosts, Pete and Ginny Rich, Chris Rich & Joan Henderson, Ted & Dianna Shimkowski, Mal & Gwen Brown, Ken, April & Lisa Butala, Avery & Jane Chope, Dave & Sherry Haase, Dick Winterhalder, Donna Jones, Dale McCoy & friend from high school, Bill & Fern Newlin, Clare Pearson & George, Vince O'Brien, Earl & Dot Holtz, Steve & Cindy Vining, Judy Konvalinka, George and Linda Jones
